

Inspirational Kitty Cat

Keep Positive Thoughts & A Smile in Your Heart

Hello from Oscar Roddey

Hi. My name is Oscar Alvin Roddey and I am a gray & white tabby kitty cat. I was homeless before I found a great place to live in Houston, Indiana. I was so tiny, sick, and scared when I went looking for shelter on a snowy nite in November 2014. I found people who cared & I was rescued.

I received food, water, and a warm place to stay. I was taken to the vet in Brownstown, Indiana and given medicine that made my respiratory infection go away. Soon after I healed from that ordeal, I received vaccinations to keep me healthy. I also had an operation so I can't have kittens. I know how it feels to be a stray kitten alone in the world. I am glad I will not contribute to putting another baby cat in a desperate situation like I endured.

For some time it seemed no one cared about me, but I did not give up hope. Now I have been rescued and am well taken care of all the time. I feel so lucky and do appreciate my good fortune. I hope my story of overcoming an overwhelming streak of bad luck and challenges can be an inspiration to others. I now live in Knightdale, North Carolina with my Aunt Glenda Sue, who loves me dearly.

Remember: When things seem hopeless, they can turn around in a positive direction at any moment.

Sending Happy Thoughts & Best Wishes to you. See my website seapebbledesign.com/oscar.
